

DRONFIELD WILDLIFE AND NATURAL HISTORY GROUP

MONTHLY MEETINGS FOR JANUARY TO JUNE 2020

Monthly Meetings are held in the Courtyard Room at the Barn at 7.30pm on the first Wednesday of the month unless otherwise stated

Wednesday January 8th Join Gordon Howarth who will be educating us with his talk “The History of the Canary in Europe from 1600 to today” - Gordon will bring along some of his canaries to show us and talk about their evolution and genetics. PLEASE NOTE THIS IS THE SECOND WEDNESDAY IN JANUARY

Wednesday February 5th Spring Flowers, Castles and Palaces in the Sintra Region of Portugal
. Join Dr. Patrick Harding for a new talk based on a walking holiday in May 2018
. and including two days in Lisbon.

Wednesday March 4th We are delighted to welcome back Nick Brown who will give us a talk entitled
. “Birds, Butterflies and More in my Wild Garden” Over the past 30 years
. Nick has recorded over 100 bird species in his garden.

Wednesday April 1st Join naturalist, artist and photographer Jim Russell for a fascinating talk about
. “The Flowers and Landscapes of The Peak District”

Wednesday May 6th “Trinidad and Tobago” by Stephen Lovell
. A look at the Southern Caribbean which has close ties to South America.
. Two close islands but very different in their feel and Natural History
.

Wednesday June 3rd 2020 Photographic Competition Revue
. Join the Group for a first look at all the entries from this year’s competition and
. choose your favourites over a glass of wine.
. THIS IS A FREE EVENT WITH DONATIONS WELCOME